Senate Resolution 1452

By: Senators Davis of the 22nd and Powell of the 23rd

A RESOLUTION

- 1 Recognizing and commending Belle Clark for her outstanding leadership in the Turpin Hill
- 2 neighborhood; and for other purposes.
- 3 WHEREAS, Belle Clark moved to the rural Augusta neighborhood of Turpin Hill in 1957
- 4 when it was a safe and tranquil place where children played freely; and
- 5 WHEREAS, by the late 1980's the neighborhood started to change with the presence of drug
- 6 dealers and prostitutes and violence following in the wake of the flourishing drug markets;
- 7 the sound of speeding cars and gunfire was a constant reminder of the dangers that
- 8 surrounded this once-peaceful community; and
- 9 WHEREAS, although her family encouraged her to move, Belle Clark did not give up on her
- 10 neighborhood and instead, in 1990, became a founding member of a neighborhood watch
- 11 program; and
- 12 WHEREAS, up until that point, no one called law enforcement for fear of retaliation, but this
- 13 handful of heroic association members, including Ms. Clark, began to make the calls and the
- 14 police presence increased; and
- WHEREAS, the brave association members acquired golf carts and began patrolling their
- streets; Belle Clark obtained cell phones for members through the help of federal grants so
- 17 the members could phone the sheriff's office immediately when they saw danger; and
- 18 WHEREAS, they called her the "neighborhood lady" and criminals knew she was "bad
- 19 news" as she courageously went out in the night unarmed to fight for her neighbors; and
- 20 WHEREAS, the success of the association and Ms. Clark's valiant efforts can be seen today
- as this once-violent neighborhood is again a place where neighbors can have cookouts in
- 22 their yards and children can ride their bicycles without fear of harm; and

10 LC 35 1879

- 26 WHEREAS, going beyond the call of duty, Belle Clark is an unparalleled and dedicated civil
- 27 servant that made Augusta, Georgia, a better place to live.
